

Model UN Grading Rubric

Name: _____

Your participation in our Model UN conference is worth 100 points. You will be graded on the following:

Advanced (90-100)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Writes at least one resolution or amendment that makes it on the docket• Acts in the interests of your nation and stays within character in the conference• Makes full speeches on specific resolutions• Makes meaningful comments and asks meaningful questions• Actively involved in caucus discussions
Proficient (80-89)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Acts in the interests of your nation and stays within character in the conference• Makes full speeches on specific resolutions• Makes meaningful comments and asks meaningful questions• Actively involved in caucus discussions
Developing (70-79)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Makes full speeches on specific resolutions• Makes meaningful comments and asks meaningful questions• Participates and is on topic during caucus discussion
Emerging (69 and below)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Makes less than 2 speeches• Makes less than 2 comments• Is off topic during caucus• Votes for resolutions in a way that is contrary to the perspective of their country

P

Rubric: Migration Position Paper Your resolutions will be graded out of 100 points on the following scale:	Emerging	Developing	Proficient	Advanced
Formatting (25) – Clean, professional, and perfect resolution formatting, proofreading and academic voice.
Preamble (25) – Cited sources; builds the case for the operatives; demonstrates deep thinking about the topic.
Operative (50) – Actions clearly stated; no loopholes or contradictions; carefully thought out consequences; reflects country’s position.				